

Essay topics of last 20 years of XAT exams

1996

There is no right way of doing a wrong thing.

1997

By the third or fourth week of the term, business school had succeeded in afflicting me with a variation of the Stockholm syndrome, named after the incident in which a hostage in a Stockholm bank robbery fell in love with one of her captors.

1998

Max Weber, a German Sociologist, defined state as an entity that has a monopoly over legal violence. India proves that the converse is also true; if criminals cannot be punished by the law, its effect they become the state.

1999

That is what a Television really is; it is another eye so you can see anywhere; another part of your heart so you can feel and care about things you never felt and cared about before; another ear to hear strange music ... the first and only International language.

2000

Ships are safer in the harbour. But they are not meant for the same.

2001

Economic Growth without distributive justice can only lead to violence

2002

Indian Economy in the Post WTO Era.

2003

To give real service, one needs to add something that cannot be bought or measured, like sincerity and integrity.

2004

Asked at the age of 83, as to which of his project would he choose as his master piece, Frank Lloyd Wright, the architect answered, The next one

2005

More than one billion Indians: A gigantic problem or a sea of opportunities.

2006

India has one of the largest pool of talented manpower, but few innovations and patented products.

2007

Economic growth without environmental damage – a mirage or a reality.

2008

Gender Bias: Cause of Third World War

2009

The Inherent vice of Capitalism is unequal sharing of blessings and the inherent virtue of Socialism is equal sharing of misery

2010

Earth provide enough to satisfy every man's need but not every man's greed need

2011

The statesman who should attempt to direct private people in what manner they ought to employ their capitals would not only load himself with most unnecessary attention but assume an authority which could safely be trusted to no council and senate whatever, and which would nowhere be so dangerous as in the hands of man who has folly and presumption enough to fancy himself fit to exercise it.

2012

- Poverty is a big menace in India. Due to its complexity and magnitude, most of the government initiatives fail.
- Poverty is a consequence of failure of government policies due to the fact that governments do not target the root causes.

2013

Corruption is the root cause of economic slowdown in India.

2014

write an essay, in not more than 200 words, on the following topic.

“The most beautiful thing can neither be seen nor be touched but can only be felt.”

2015

Listening is a dying art. We hardly listen to understand. We only listen to refute or reply.

2016

Technology and Nature are natural enemies